

Each Year We Run Enough Real Estate Advertising To Circle The Entire Earth.

“Bringing More to the Table!”

Offices conveniently located throughout northeastern Ohio.

If you placed end-to-end all the real estate ads we run each year in the Cleveland area to help our clients and agents sell their homes, the string of ads would stretch over 30,000 miles. That's more than enough to make it all the way around the globe.

At Russell Real Estate Services, we know it takes such a global marketing effort to sell a local home. That's because we are local. Our corporate headquarters is right here, not out-of-state like many real estate companies, and our agents live and work in the areas they serve.

When you choose Russell to sell your home, you'll be assured your agent knows your neighborhood better than anyone, and has a marketing plan to find qualified buyers quickly. So whether you're moving down the street or to the other side of the globe, choose Russell Real Estate Services.

It will make a world of difference.
